

STEVE RUDOLPH'S "Salute to Reading Show"

Information for LCC Grant Application

For anyone who would like to apply for an LCC grant for the "Salute to Reading Show" the following information is provided to assist you in filling out the LCC Grant application. (Application forms can be found online at www.massculturalcouncil.org.)

Line 1. "Project Description: Summarize the proposed project in the space provided."

This program is geared to Elementary School audiences. Using actual children's books, the "Salute to Reading Show" stresses the fun and value of reading, thus motivating children to read and to visit the Library. The program utilizes an interdisciplinary approach that includes storytelling, magic, music and comedy to make books come alive.

Line 5. "Please detail the qualifications of key artists...involved...with this project."

Magician/educator Steve Rudolph is a former public school teacher with a degree in Music Education. For over twenty years he has specialized in presenting enrichment and entertainment programs in schools and libraries throughout New England. Steve is also experienced in professional theatre, and as a musician he has performed extensively both in the U.S. and in Europe.
